Letter From Concord Squad

Mrs. Beck Hudson
Times-Virginian
Appomattox, Virginia

Dear Mrs. Hudson:

The Concord Rescue Squad is now in operation making emergency calls to administer first aid to the public. We have answered 22 calls for help between July 1 and July 15, 1971. We are still short approximately $3,000.00 towards our $12,-400.00 goal. However, we foresee most of this amount available from pledges and donations not yet received.

We, the members and Board of Directors of the Concord Rescue Squad, give our heartfelt thanks to you and others of your paper for your unselfish support. Without your generous publicity during our organization and Fund Raising campaign, it would not have been possible to begin operation at this time.

It certainly is fortunate to have such civic minded people in the new media, of this area, who are as interested in the public welfare as you and your colleagues.

Very truly yours,
R. R. Spradlin
Public Relations Officer

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

UNREALIZED IDEAL

Lesson for August 1, 1971

Background Scripture: Exodus 20:12; Ephesians 5:21 through 6:4.
Devotional Reading: Proverbs 31: 10-22.

"PAUL IS A MALE CHAUVINIST" read a placard carried by a Women's Liberation advocate in a recent demonstration. There were probably many spectators who asked, "Paul, who?", but many of us, familiar with the traditional criticisms of the Apostle Paul and his view of women, got the point.

Many of us are familiar with the view that Paul was: (1) a womanhater; (2) antimarriage; and (3) advocate of a tyrannical family structure. These criticisms, however, are mostly very unfair to Paul. Paul's concept of both womanhood and the family were, in reality, actually revolutionary for the day in which he lived.

"A Piece Of Property"

To understand Paul's contribution to both womanhood and family life, we need to realize what was the status of the woman in Paul's day. The Jew's view of womanhood was generally very low. Every morning the Jewish male gave thanks that God had not made him "a Gentile, a slave, or a woman." The Jewish woman had few rights and was little more than a piece of property for her husband.

In the Greek and Roman worlds the standards were even lower. The wife had only two functions: bearing children and managing the household. Loving her husband, being his companion, sharing his life, were not part of the concept of marriage. A married woman was little more than a slave and her husband's rights were almost unlimited.

When we view Paul's teachings, then, we can see what a tremendous change he was calling for. True, Paul's vision was limited from our perspective (he did not anticipate a day of legal equality), but it was revolutionary for his time and, if we understand it, still an ideal that is seldom reached in our society.

"Wives, be subject to your husbands, as to the Lord" (Ephesians 5:21) Note that this submission is to be the same kind of voluntary, uncoerced submission we give to Christ. There is a world of difference between this and the standard of his own day. Paul's society was not about to confer legal equality on the wife, but Paul found a way of erasing the old bondage.

"Husbands, Love Your Wives"

Furthermore, look at the obligation he has placed on the husband! "Husband, love your wives as Christ loved the Church and give himself up for her" (5:25), If any man of Paul's day tried to follow this admonition, he had to lift the level of his family life several thousand percent! What an ideal — even today!

Legal equality and democracy in the home will not guarantee love. Yet, as Christians, we must take the place of Christ in our relationships as husband and wife is speaking to us through our scriptures, that husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the Church (Based on notes prepared by the Division of Christian Education, United Christian Churches of Christ (Disciples of Christ), Department of Church Services.)

Will Attend Football Camp

Jimmy Chandler, Steve Lawson and Billy Guthrie will be attending the U. of Va. Football Camp next week, Aug. 1 – Aug. 6 at Charlottesville.

Accordino to ACHS coach Jerry Robson the camp is for high school football players as a conditioning program and for teaching football techniques and fundamentals.

CORRECTION

The name of Tony Phelps was omitted, unintentionally, from the writeup and photo last week of the Oakville Minor League team. Charles Wilkerson is the coach for this fine group of little league hurlers and batters, and both he and the T-VIRGINIAN say that ALL the boys on the team deserve a lot of credit for practicing and playing during the season. So to Tony, and all the rest – including the Minor League All-Stars who will play here in a tournament Tues., Aug. 10, Good Luck. Game time is 7 p.m.

Cheerleaders Attending Camp

Four Appomattox County High School cheerleaders left on Sunday for Ferrum Junior College, where they are attending Cheerleading School this week. The four girls shown above with Bruce Norconk (who just happened to be watching the practice session last Friday to see how the girls' new cheers for the old Alma Mater were coming along) are from left to right: Nan Chambers, Sally Harvey, Connie Guill and Patty Sue Kerr. The perky outfits the girls are wearing are stripped ACHS shirts and white culottes which they made themselves especially for this occasion.

On Monday night, our four ACHS girls, in Cheerleading competition won a Superior Blue Ribbon and also won a Spirit Stick. Incidentally, if they can win the Spirit Stick three nights in a row, they can bring it back to their school with them. Best of luck, girls, and we shall see you at the very first ACHS football game this season.
